"WOOD IS GOOD!"

"Yes is the answer. What is the question?" This is the motto and mission statement at Jerry Tucci's and it means they are dedicated to providing the best wood-oven baked Italian food possible. Al Wheless liked the idea so much he bought the company! This 150-seat restaurant can be an excellent dining experience for the whole family. And if you can not stay to eat, take it with you.

"The sign on the door says pizzeria. So, first and foremost the pizzas have to be perfect every time" Ted Brockhurst cooking from the ONLY oven in the restaurant.
