Have you been looking for great Mexican take out? How about mouth watering tacos? Well look no further. There are three things that Los Jarritos is very proud of. Fresh food, authentic spices and flavors, and some of the best take out in Central Phoenix area. Patrons of Los Jarritos also enjoy the relaxed menu where you can order what ever it is you wish. If they know how to cook it - you will receive it fresh, hot and tasty! Los Jarritos is also very excited about their catering services and invite you to give them a call and ask them what they can provide for your next party. Their menu includes some of the original Mexican plates, but the difference is the distinct, rich flavors that they create with their home grown recipes.

Jarritos (Ha-ree-tos) is a Spanish term for a pottery of earthenware, made from clay of a superior quality. For thousands of years, these utensils, have been used in Mexico for eating, drinking, and cooking. Chefs use these culinary utensils for authentic cuisine, and when slow-cooked in these deep earthenware pots, one can taste a unique and distinctive flavor.
