With the perfect combination of elegance, sophistication, and intimacy, Eleve is one of the most talked about new restaurants in Phoenix. Situated in the Biltmore corridor at 32nd Street and Camelback Road, Eleve (pronounced el-uh-vay) has become a favorite spot for locals looking for upscale, yet comfortable urban dining.

Eleve is adamant about serving only the freshest seasonal ingredients. The menu changes monthly and features light, fresh flavors, beautiful presentations, and preparations that are well-suited to today's healthier lifestyles. Whenever possible, Eleve features locally and naturally grown produce and meats, as well as fresh seafood brought in daily from the best sources worldwide. The service is warm and friendly, professional without being stuffy. To complement the food, Eleve offers a full range of beverages, including cocktails, beers, a 60 bottle wine list, and an assortment of non-alcoholic beverages.

Praise for Eleve
