Quickly becoming the trendiest place in North Scottsdale, The Painted Horse Cafe, nestled in the beautiful surroundings of Troon North Center, offers classical American regional cuisine. Elegant free-flowing interiors show off breathtaking murals of various horses with a full sized statue of... what else but a painted horse. This casual setting offers breakfast, lunch and Friday and Saturday dinner. With items like biscuits with redeye andouille gravy in the morning and fire-grilled tequila chicken nesting on a mango-jicama slaw for lunch, all served with a side of Western Attitude.
